About This Game

As the remote-controlled exoplanet survey and reconnaissance drone SR-19 descends into the atmosphere of planet Xenos, it runs into trouble — and gets a little help.

Starzine delivers fast-paced, 3D paddle-and-ball arcade action updated for the 21st century. Battle your way through 71 stages, including 2 fascinating boss fights, spread across 2 worlds.

Key Features

- ### Truly 3D playfields

  Animated and innovative stage design explores the limits of 3D playfields.

- ### Unique player viewpoint

  Unique player viewpoint, just behind the paddle, places the player inside the action.

- ## Fluid, intuitive and minimal control scheme

- ## Maximum ball control

  Thrust forward to smash the ball and accelerate it and accurately alter its trajectory using aftertouch to get the ball where you want it.

- ## Two distinct planet environments

  Explore two sprawling terrains as you progress through the stages.

- ## With an original soundtrack by Thanassis Christodoulou

- ## Built using Unreal® Engine 4
